Anderson Middle School Leadership representatives Jacob Stroup and Yendi Esquivel gave an update on school activities within the Cascade School District.

PUBLIC COMMENT ON ITEMS NOT ON THE AGENDA

Jill Bennett addressed the Council asking why notices are put in the paper but ordinances are not made available for the public to view until the Friday before the Council meeting as this does not allow her enough time to thoroughly review the document and prepare questions to ask the Council about any concerns she may have.

City Attorney Jody Burgess responded to her question.

Ms. Bennett further requested the City Council consider pulling the Public Hearing regarding changing violation penalties for Title 8 to allow her more time to review the ordinance and formulate her questions.
