Snow Emergency Expiring

Auburn Hills, Michigan, February 16, 2021 – Effective tonight at 9:00 pm the snow emergency that took effect on Monday, February 15, 2021 at 10:00 pm will expire. We appreciate everyone’s cooperation during this winter storm and snow removal process.

Thank you to our Department of Public Works road crews for their outstanding effort in keeping up with the large amount of snow that fell over that last 24 hours. They will continue to be out in the neighborhoods for a while clearing the residential streets.

With frigid temperatures expected tonight, now is a good time to check on your neighbors, senior citizens, relatives, and friends. Don’t hesitate to call us if you need anything.
