CITY CLERK HONORED WITH AWARD FROM ASSOCIATION
First to receive Lifetime Achievement Award

Auburn Hills, MI (July 6, 2015) – The City of Auburn Hills is pleased to announce that City Clerk Terri Kowal, CMMC, MMC, is the recipient of the first ever President’s award from the Michigan Association of Municipal Clerks (MAMC). The Lifetime Achievement award was presented at the annual MAMC conference on June 25, 2015, and was presented for outstanding and extraordinary service to the profession.

“I am humbled and so very grateful. It is most rewarding to be appreciated by City Council, and the City Manager and staff, but to receive recognition from your peers is awesome. This was one of the proudest moments of my career,” stated Ms. Kowal.

Ms. Kowal joined the Auburn Hills team in December 2011. She began her career as an elected Municipal Clerk in 1996 with Shelby Township in Macomb County, Michigan. She was re-elected numerous times and served sixteen years in that capacity. Over her nearly twenty years of experience, Ms. Kowal has been actively engaged in professional organizations that support and advance the profession of Municipal Clerk.

“Ms. Kowal has served the city of Auburn Hills for the past four years as a key member of the City’s leadership team. She has continued to advance the work and significance of the role of the City Clerk’s Office within our community. This award comes as no surprise to us and we are proud to see her recognized for her noteworthy reputation in the Municipal Clerk profession,” stated Mayor Kevin McDaniel.
