The annual Art on Parade program is an on-loan outdoor sculpture exhibit funded by NAHF and the Adams County Scientific and Cultural Facilities District (SCFD). Artists loan their pieces to the program for one year, and park patrons are asked to vote for their favorite either by paper ballots available at the Northglenn Recreation Center or online at <http://northglennarts.org/public-art/art-on-parade/>. The deadline to vote is Friday, Nov. 11, 2022.

The sculpture with the most votes is dubbed “The People’s Choice” and will be purchased by NAHF and gifted to the City of Northglenn for permanent placement in the city. Sculptures are also available for sale to the public.

The sculptures are on exhibit at E.B. Rains Jr. Memorial Park through May of 2023. The park is located at 11701 Community Center Drive; one-half mile south of 120th Ave. and Grant St. in Northglenn.
