Electronic Disposal and Shred Event

Sat., April 16, 8 a.m. to noon, northwest corner of the Northglenn Marketplace, 104th Avenue and Interstate 25

The public is encouraged to protect the environment and their identity in one place at the Northglenn Police Department’s fourth annual Electronic Disposal and Shred Event.

Almost all electronics are accepted for disposal free of charge except for some televisions and monitors. Fees are $5 for CRT-computer monitors and $30 for CRT-tube television sets. Flat monitors and television sets are disposed of free of charge.

Gather personal and sensitive documents in a box or bag and bring them in to be shredded. Shredding keeps your personal information safe and helps prevent identity theft and fraud.

Please note that old medications will NOT be accepted.

Proceeds from this event benefit Metro Denver Crime Stoppers; donations are gratefully accepted. Sponsors include Horizons North Credit Union, Shred-it, Techno+Rescue and Metro Denver Crime Stoppers.

For more information contact the Northglenn Police Department at 303-450-8893, or Officer Scott McNeilly at 303-450-8852 or smcneilly@northglenn.org.
