Safe Street Halloween

Sat., Oct. 22, 5:30-8:30 p.m., Northglenn High School, 601 W. 100th Place

The Northglenn Police Department and Northglenn High School are teaming up again for Safe Street Halloween. This annual event, now in its 18th year, provides area residents with a free, safe, and sometimes spooky environment for kids to treat or treat.

Northglenn High School students will entertain all the costume clad children and their family with creatively-decorated classrooms and Halloween-themed music.

The students, local groups and businesses will pass out more than 5,000 pounds of candy to trick or treaters throughout 20 classrooms. But first, walk through the Haunted Gym and visit the Arachnophobia Corner or new Scary Hallway (if you dare). There is cookie decorating and contests, too.

Safe Street Halloween is safe fun for the whole family.

Community groups and businesses are invited to participate. Candy can be donated at City Hall, on either the first or second floor.

For more information, go to www.northglenn.org/safestreethalloween.
