February 28, 2022

3:00-5:00 p.m. Workshop#1: Pershing County – Past, Present and Future: Open discussion of Pershing County and the community: where it has been, currently how it looks, and what is expected in the next 3-5 years based on anticipated growth. This will include demographics, economic trends, and other important state and county information. As growth is considered, discussion will continue to how prepared Pershing County government is to respond to this growth and then to identifying issues currently faced as well as what may be anticipated.

Public Input (2)

March 7, 2022 CANCELED

9:00-11:30 a.m. Workshop#2 continuation of Workshop #1. Pershing County Preparedness: As growth is anticipated, the discussion beings to develop around the organizational preparedness for growth discussed in Workshop #1. Through a facilitated process, Commissioners will identify issues Pershing County experiences related to organizational/administrative, policy and community leadership and what organizational efficiencies might be needed in light of growth will be included with this workshop.

Public Input (2)

March 21, 2022

9:00-11:30 a.m. Workshop #2 continuation of Workshop #1; Organizational Capacity and Resources: Focus on organizational capacity based on issues discussed and identified from Workshop #1. We will review the existing organization, roles and responsibilities and what may or may not be necessary to position for optimal success for the organization and community. Is the current organizational structure working well or if not, what would be needed to improve the organization. What is needed in appropriate support? What are the strengths and weaknesses of the organization? Available resources will be reviewed to support Pershing County capacity building through organizational structure.
