

2023 Open Book and Local Board of Appeal and Equalization Meetings
Important Information Regarding Assessment and Classification of Property
This may affect your 2024 property tax payments

Notice is hereby given that the following is a schedule of the 2023 Open Book and Local Board of Appeal and Equalization Meetings for the Cities & Townships listed below. The purpose of this meeting is to determine whether taxable property in the jurisdiction has been properly valued and classified by the assessor, and to determine whether corrections need to be made.

If you believe the value or classification of your property is incorrect, please contact your assessor's office at 507-825-1150 to discuss your concerns. If you are still not satisfied with the valuation or classification after discussing it with your assessor, you may appear before the local board of appeal and equalization. The board shall review the valuation, classification, or both if necessary, and shall correct it as needed. Generally, an appearance before your local board of appeal and equalization is required by law before an appeal can be taken to the county board of appeal and equalization which will be held June 12, 2023 at 7:00 pm at the Pipestone County Courthouse, Pipestone, Minnesota
